

THE GREAT LEGAL QUIZ

FAQs for Quiz Masters and Participants

Q: What is the Great Legal Quiz?

A: You can participate in the Great Legal Quiz event simply by organising a quiz, as you might usually do, for your colleagues, friends, and family. We will provide the quiz questions (which are general knowledge), and all you have to do is sign up as a Quiz Master for your team. You then compete with teams across the country by completing the same quiz simultaneously (and feedback your scores to us)!

Q: When is the Great Legal Quiz?

A: All Great Legal Quiz teams will be asked to complete the quiz on the evening of 8th November 2017. This is so there is no score jiggling or spoilers, as it is a national competition! Teams are free to complete the quiz after this date, but will not be eligible to enter a score for the national competition.

Q: What will the Quiz Master have to do?

A: A Quiz Master will be responsible for coordinating their organisation's quiz. This will include finding a venue (it could be held in your local pub, or even your house or the office after hours!) and organising the fundraising. If you have a lot of people wanting to participate, you may also need to divide people into smaller teams. After the event, we will be asking our Quiz Masters to send us the money raised by the event and the scores from their quiz.

Q: How should we register?

A: If you are planning to host a quiz, please fill in the registration form in advance of the event.

Q: Do you have to pay an entry fee?

A: We do not charge an entry fee for Quiz Masters wanting to sign up, but it is a fundraising event for free legal advice charities so each quiz should raise money through ticket sales, raffles or donations!

Q: How do we start fundraising?

A: This is a fundraising event to support the provision of free legal advice services across the country. We recommend that you charge for tickets to your quiz, but how much is at your discretion. Alongside this we have also created our top fundraising tips to help you boost your fundraising effort

Q: What will we be sent and when?

A: Quiz Masters will be sent materials upon registration including advertising materials, tips for fundraising, and information about the causes that your fundraising will support. Quiz Masters will receive the standardised questions, used by all registered quiz teams across the country, on the day of the event to ensure it is as fair as possible!

Q: How long is the quiz?

A: The Quiz comprises of 8 rounds of 10 questions, the total time taken will depend on how quickly you whizz through the questions and how many breaks you take etc. We would usually advise to leave at least an hour and a half for the full quiz.

Q: Can non-lawyers join the event?

A: YES! Anyone can either register to hold a quiz or take part in the event; lawyers, support staff, students, legal advice providers, friends and family are all welcome. It is your choice who is in your quiz team. All we ask is that participating teams raise some funds in support of the event.

Q: Is there a limit on team size?

A: No, we don't impose a limit on team size. It is for the Quiz Master to decide if they would like to limit the numbers in teams, as they will be the ones coordinating! Large teams could either split into several smaller ones or you could think about 'fining' teams with more people as a penalty for extra knowledge as a way to generate extra funds.

Q: I want to organise a quiz and fundraise for my legal advice organisation – can I do that?

A: Absolutely – we would love all the legal advice organisations around the country to get involved and, as with all the events that the legal support trusts organise, free legal advice charities can take part and raise 100% of the funds for themselves. But please let us know that you are holding one and how much you raise, otherwise you won't get the questions or be able to take part in the competition!

Q: Are you using social media?

A: The Great Legal Quiz event is on Facebook! Please come and 'like' us and/or follow us to get all the updates on the event. If you are tweeting, please use the hashtag #GreatLegalQuiz (but please don't tweet the questions or the answers on the night itself!).
